Dear Legislative Leaders:

In an effort to negotiate the differences, which remain outstanding from the last Legislative Session, I invite you to a meeting in my office involving the four of you, Lt. Governor Smith, and myself.

The time in the near future would be arranged by my Scheduler, according to our respective schedules. I propose that we each be limited to one staff member.

I look forward to our opportunity to meet together.

Sincerely,
