EXECUTIVE COMMUNICATION.

The following communication was received from His Excellency, the Governor:

STATE OF MINNESOTA, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, ST. PAUL, Feb. 3, 1893.

Hon. D. M. Clough, President of the Senate:

DEAR SIR: I have approved and signed Senate File No. 141, "An act to authorize the name of Peter Quinn to be inscribed on the monument erected in 1873, by the State of Minnesota, at Fort Ridgley, to the memory of Captain John S. March and twenty-four men of his company, and appropriating $50.00 for that purpose," and have deposited the same in the office of the secretary of state.

Very respectfully,

KNUTE NELSON, Governor.

Mr. Dean asked the unanimous consent to present a petition from the Woman's Auxiliary to the World's Fair, relative to the adoption of a state flower and emblem,

Which was read.

Mr. Dean offered the following concurrent resolution and moved its adoption:

Be it resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring, that the "Wild Lady Slipper or Moccasin Flower," Cypripedium Calceolus, be and the same is hereby designated and adopted as the state flower or floral emblem of the State of Minnesota.

Adopted.

Mr. Donnelly offered the following preamble and resolution:

WHEREAS, The telegraph service of the country has become a burdensome monopoly under which charges are exacted from the public far exceeding the rates for like service in countries favored with government lines; and

WHEREAS, Upon the expiring of the telephone patents, now soon to occur, a similar monopoly, in the transmission of intelligence by telephone, is likely to be established, as grievous to the people as that of the telegraph; therefore be it

Resolved, By the Senate, the House concurring, that our Senators and Representatives in congress are respectfully requested to use all reasonable efforts to secure the establishment by the United States of America of a government telegraph and telephone service for the use and benefit of its citizens.

Adopted.
